

NO WAR.

Peace and human rights now!

Canadian Conference on

Preventing Crimes Against Humanity:

Lessons from the Asia Pacific War (1931-1945)

How do we prevent crimes against humanity? This two-day interactive conference will examine the lessons from World War II in Asia and seek how to apply those lessons to today's world. A diverse cast of Canadian and international scholars, authors and human rights advocates will speak in the conference.

Mark International Anti-Racism Day, March 21st, by listening and learning from survivors of crimes against humanity—a Korean woman forced into Japanese military sexual slavery; a survivor of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima; a victim of Japan's biological warfare in China.

Global peace and justice requires action, international networking and critical thinking!

Friday, March 21 – Saturday, March 22, 2003
The First Nations Longhouse, 1985 West Mall, UBC
www.aplconference.ca

Email: apl.conference@ubc.ca
Phone (604) 822-4904 Fax (604) 822-5099

Sponsors: Canada Association for Learning and Preserving the History of WW II in Asia (ALPHA), Canada Asia Pacific Resource Network (CAPRN), Greater Vancouver Japanese Canadian Citizens' Association Human Rights Committee, UBC First Nations House of Learning, UBC Women's Studies and Gender Relations, UBC International House

Japanese Canadian evacuees leaving Vancouver in 1942.

Four "comfort women" in Burma after liberation by the allied army.

Hiroshima atomic cloud.

Victim's last prayer.

Never again!

Canadian POWs liberated from Japanese capture.